

This movie was made with Steven Orlofsky with help from Dianne Hudson. We made this movie as part of a project at the DOROT Community Center for an oral history project about Jews during WWII. Some of the formatting and imagery corresponds to their standards.